Cory Booker

www.corybooker.com // Former Mayor, Newark, NJ // Non-Veteran

We call ourselves the home of the brave, but we are not doing nearly enough to support and honor our brave veterans. Veterans are disproportionately represented in our criminal justice system and are more likely to experience homelessness. Too often they lack access to the health care services they need and deserve.

As president, Cory will

- fight for veterans' access to health care, education and good-paying jobs
- Strengthen economic opportunities for veterans, including those seeking to start small businesses by directing the Small Business Administration to invest more in veteran-owned businesses and entrepreneurship.
- Ensure world class health care, including mental health services, that is accessible and easy to navigate.
- Pass the Veteran Education and Transfer Extension Act to fill in gaps in veterans' higher education benefits.
- Ensure the Veterans Health Administration provides gender-inclusive and accessible services, including access to gynecologists and obstetricians, sexual counselors, therapists, and other medical personnel.
- End veteran homelessness through major new investment in evidence-based programs to find, keep safe, and move back into housing anyone in need.
- Appoint a White House official solely focused on coordinating across federal agencies to cut the suicide rate among veterans.

On War and Peace

- All options on the table with Iran, including military. (Nov 2013)
- Direct military intervention in Syria only as last resort. (Aug 2013)
- We're spending billions on a war based on unjust pretenses. (Aug 2008)
- Iran must accept long-term intrusive nuke inspection. (Mar 2014)
- Hold Assad accountable for slaughter of civilians. (Feb 2017)
- Legislation:
 - Original cosponsor: Veterans' Access to Care Through Choice, Accountability, and Transparency Act of 2014 – passed 2014
 - Introduced: Strengthening Technical Assistance, Resources, and Training to Unleash the Potential of Veterans Act (STARTUP-Vets) – 2015 (Referred to Committee)

Steve Bullock

www.stevebullock.com // Gov MT

General Campaign Statements:

STEVE'S APPROACH TO FOREIGN POLICY RESTS ON FOUR PILLARS:

1. PROTECTING THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Protecting the United States will be Steve's number one priority as Commander-In-Chief.

Steve will ensure our military has the resources to effectively address the threats faced by the United States and our allies. America needs a military that can deter and defeat current threats, but is flexible enough to address new and emerging challenges like cyber attacks, chemical weapons, drones, and artificial intelligence.

2. STRENGTHENING OUR ALLIANCES

Trump's "America Alone" foreign policy is undermining our alliances, emboldening our adversaries, and abandoning our values, especially support for human rights.

3. DETERRING OUR ADVERSARIES

Steve will re-engage our allies to deter advances from our adversaries. In the absence of strong U.S. leadership, and U.S.-led coalition leadership, China and Russia are making inroads in economies and geography around the world. That's why Steve will re-engage our allies and work with our military and diplomatic corps to deter our adversaries and ensure we contain their aggression.

Further, instead of denigrating our intelligence community, Steve will rely on their counsel and expertise to help guide foreign policy and ensure our nation's security.

4. PROMOTING OUR VALUES

Steve will rejoin the community of nations with international diplomacy based on American values. He will lead our allies in a coalition to promote a rules-based international community that resolves conflicts instead of exacerbating tensions.

Steve will ensure our military is not used for political purposes along our border, and that we only deploy our brave men and women for missions that serve America's foreign policy interests.

I am proud of our record in Miramar as we've:

- Fought to bring American jobs back from China.
- Passed a living wage for city workers.
- Recruited companies with high-paying jobs to hire Floridians.
- Led the fight against the oil industry's campaign to drill in Big Cypress National Preserve, adjacent to the Everglades and just a few miles from our city.
- Joined mayors across the country to oppose climate denialism and pledge to support the goals of the Paris Agreement.
- Taken on the Trump administration to protect immigrants, proposing our city as a safe zone for those who come to this country seeking a better life.
- Sued the state of Florida to protect our residents from gun violence and overturn a law backed by the NRA.
- Proposed and passed relief on water bills for federal workers who were impacted by the shutdown.

VMF Issues

Priorities: (from website)

- Help veterans find quality jobs upon re-entering civilian life.
- Provide needed job training and educational opportunities for returning veterans.
- Empower veterans to start new businesses.
- Expand benefits and protections for surviving spouses and military families.
- End homelessness among our veterans.
- Address the epidemics of addiction and suicide among our veterans.
- Ensure access to the highest quality medical care for veterans' physical and mental health.
- Hold Veterans Administration (VA) leadership accountable for meeting their responsibilities to all veterans and their families.
- Opportunities in Civilian Life
- Veterans' Health and Well-Being
- Helping Struggling Veterans

The Right to Health

- Universal health care must be a right — not a privilege — so everyone has the chance to live a healthy life, and our government needs to act to protect the foundations of our health.

The Right to an Equal Vote

- A healthy democracy depends on the broadest participation possible. Everyone must have an equal voice to demand justice from our government, and everyone must be able to vote with no discrimination and no barriers.

The Right to Clean Air and Clean Water

- Everyone has the right to breathe fresh air and drink clean water, free from industrial poisons. Corporations must not be able to violate this right for the sake of their profits.

The Right to Learn

- Without guaranteed access to a good education, there's no such thing as equal opportunity. Our government must protect the right to a free, quality, public education from preschool through college and on to skills training.

The Right to a Living Wage

- No one should be forced to work more than one full-time job just to survive, and no one should see their raise eaten up by the rising cost of living.

Marianne Williamson

www.marianne2020.com // Author // Non-Veteran

“The Williamson Administration will: (copy from marianne2020.com)

- Provide the VA with a more in-depth understanding of the number of veterans and service members at risk for homelessness. That means understanding who is coming home with PTSD, addiction, and other forms of mental health issues. That means more studies and more research into these topics.
- Provide more veterans with affordable housing. Many veterans come home to a broken family. Veterans end up going from place to place, and many can't find long-term employment. A more manageable system that studies the influences that cause homelessness, and that tracks the needs of veterans, is morally required.
- Create a Universal Basic Income. While this will assist all Americans, it will be especially constructive for veterans transitioning back to life in the States.
- Free community college and student loan amnesty. Many veterans went into the armed forces as a way to pay for their education. Making education more affordable will provide greater options to all Americans. Plus, it will help veterans who want to continue their education.
- Increased mental health services. Again, this is good for the Nation. But particularly useful for veterans.
- Create a US Department of Peace. (See US Dept of Peace section). One of the very best ways to protect veterans is to ensure that there are fewer of them in the future.”
